What You Would See in New York's Sunday Parade.

PRETTY GIRLS, HATS, GOWNS

Wide Skirts and Gay Colors—Ribbons and Posies and the Brightness of Spring.

Supposing Sunday "to be fine, what would you see were you in New York and on the avenue and with eyes wide open?

"Low, to say truth, than you would on Saturday, for Sunday display is out of fashion. On Saturday at three o'clock, or on Sunday after church, you would see women, of course, and the finest women in the world.

I like New York women because they seem finished. The creator, or, to be more practical if less reverent, the confidante, got through with them before he turned them loose on the world. There women will she can't reform it or even temporarily reclaim it from its sins.

Is it to stand out or to sneak in? You must realize that according to in-shoulders. Above the cape was a hat in violet straw, trimmed with purple spangles and a quantity of double bows of violet velvet.

Then there was a coarse black corded material that was satin but was almost like corduroy. Its wearer was carrying posy willows, and so I forgive the frock, for I like anybody who likes posies. The satin corduroy had a skirt that looked full. Do you know what unaccountable differences there are in that respect among spring gowns? Take two frocks, each six or seven yards at bottom, and one will look in and the other won't, by a good deal. They'll each be lined with horsehair to the waistline and yet one will stand out and the other sneak in. There are souls in gowns, of course you know, and one is good and another possessed of Satan. Total depravity is the heritage of many a frock, and do what its sweet making almost everything with stiffening right up under the arms. How ever are you going to dance or to play tennis or to walk or to do anything but lie in a hammock in these outstanding and down-weighting dresses? In order to produce an effect that is in any way tolerable the new gowns must be of heavy material, or, failing this, they must be heavily lined. The summer girl is going to be badly handicapped, and fashion should have remembered that when last there was crinoline there wasn't any summer girl.

The new skirts are wide and they take trimmings to make them look wider. Some have one flounce, more three and most are flounced right up to the hem. Some are wide and they take trimmings to make them look wider. Some have one flounce, more three and most are flounced right up to the hem.

Elder S. S. Beaver of McAllisterville, Juniata county, Pa., says his wife is subject to cramp in the stomach. Last summer she tried Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy for it, and was much pleased with the speedy relief it afforded. She has since used it whenever necessary and found that it never fails. For sale by F. J. Wurzburg, druggist, No. 58 Monroe street.

A Positive Fact.

Ladies, do not delay your valuable time by waiting and suffering, but secure a bottle of Dullum's Great German Female Uterine Tonic and be cured of your monthly trouble either in old and young. It is the very best preparation I ever prescribed in my extensive practice. It has given the best results in the greatest number of cases of female troubles of any medicine I ever used. I do not make a practice of using or recommending patent medicines, but this remedy is prepared by a very competent physician and chemist of my acquaintance, and I can carefully and conscientiously recommend it as the best.

My wife was confined to her bed for over two months with a very severe attack of rheumatism. We could get nothing that would afford her any relief, and as a last resort gave Chamberlain's Pain Balm a trial. To our great surprise she began to improve after the first application, and by using it regularly she was soon able to get up and attend to her house work. For sale by F. J. Wurzburg, No. 58 Monroe street.

For neurogia, rheumatism, head and toothache and all pains, use Dullum's great German liniment at Scribner & Aldworth's, 73 Monroe street.
